Student Financial Assistance Project for Digital Courses on External Platforms

Approved by the 110-1-3 Academy Affairs Meeting of the International Cloud Academy on September 7, 2021
Amended by the 111-2-3 Academy Affairs Meeting of the International Cloud Academy on April 13, 2023
Amended in accordance with CYCU Letter No. 1120002325 dated July 4, 2023

I. In response to global digital learning trends and the development of higher education, and to encourage students to make effective use of online digital teaching resources, enhance their international language abilities and diverse perspectives, and cultivate the ability to learn independently through digital means, Chung Yuan Christian University hereby establishes the "Student Financial Assistance Project for Digital Courses on External Platforms."

II. Financial Assistance:

(1) Eligibility: A currently enrolled student of the University shall be eligible to apply if the student takes a "MOOC Micro-Credit" course recognized by the relevant departmental curriculum committee and listed in the University's course registration system, registers for the course on the relevant platform during the current semester, pays the applicable course fee, and obtains a "Verified Certificate" or a similar passing certificate.

(2) Application Procedure: A student shall submit an application before the end of the semester in which the course is recognized for credit. The actual application period shall be subject to the relevant announcement. The student shall submit originals of the relevant supporting documents, including a "Verified Certificate" obtained within the prescribed period for the current semester, a screenshot of the course grade, and proof of payment for the course. Financial assistance shall be granted after the application passes review.

(3) Principles: Each student may apply for only one course per semester and may submit only one certificate. For a course charged on a monthly basis, financial assistance shall be limited to two months. Courses charged on an annual basis shall not be eligible for financial assistance; however, the number of recipients or the amount of financial assistance may be adjusted as appropriate in light of the annual budget.

(4) Assistance Standards: The fee set by the platform for the paid course or certificate for the relevant course offering shall be used as the basis for financial assistance. The maximum assistance per course shall be NT$3,000 for an English-taught course and NT$2,400 for a Chinese-taught course. If a discount applies, the amount actually paid shall be rounded to the nearest whole number, and assistance shall be provided according to the following payment standards:

1. Domestic Platforms:
